

PRESS RELEASE

Dr. Alexis Darányi new partner at DMR Legal

Munich, 29 May 2024 – DMR Legal continues to expand its finance practice and is pleased to announce that Dr. Alexis Darányi joins the firm as new partner as of 1 May 2024. With his many years of experience both in a major law firm and in-house, he will strengthen in particular the banking and finance advisory services for banks, financial service providers, tech companies, start-ups and FinTechs.

As Chief Legal Officer of Scalable Capital, a well-known FinTech unicorn, Alexis was responsible for setting up the key corporate structures and processes (including the legal department, compliance, regulatory) for over eight years. In close cooperation with the founders and the management, he helped shape the corporate strategy at an early stage. He played a leading role in various authorization procedures with the relevant supervisory authorities, the introduction of new financial services and numerous financing rounds with a volume of over EUR 260 million. Before joining Scalable Capital, Alexis spent almost four years at the major international law firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, where he gained important experience, particularly in the transaction business.

Dr. Maximilian Degenhart, founding partner at DMR Legal, commented: "We are very happy that Alexis helps us expand our practice in particular in banking and finance - including the seminal digital business models - and strengthen our offering for banks, financial service providers, tech companies and start-ups, in particular FinTechs. His exceptional entrepreneurial experience, legal expertise and personality will contribute to the further development of our firm and offer our clients significant added value. At the same time, the fact that we can welcome Alexis shows that our focused boutique law firm is attractive to highly qualified, entrepreneurial lawyers."

DMR Legal now has a total of four partners. DMR Legal currently employs one associate and one senior business lawyer.
